

TO END THE STRIKE

Textile Council Invested With Full Power to Act.

RESULT OF LAST NIGHT'S VOTE

Cotton Mill Workers' Unions Agree to Accept Such Terms of Settlement as the Textile Council May Arrange for With Employers.

(By Associated Press.)
FALL RIVER, MASS., Jan. 13.—The five textile unions involved in the cotton mill strike voted tonight to confer upon the textile council full power to settle the strike or conduct other negotiations with the mill owners without being obliged to refer any action taken back to the individual unions for endorsement.

Conference adjourned.
A conference between representatives of the nearly 20,000 striking cotton mill operatives and a committee of mill owners will be held at the State house in Boston tomorrow.

Authority was given to a committee of five appointed by the mill owners at a meeting tonight. This unusual and radical action is the result of the great efforts of Gov. Douglas, who has actively interested himself in an endeavor to bring about an amicable end of the unfortunate condition which has prevailed in this city for the past 25 weeks, whose personal representative, Herbert T. Drake, has been laboring here for the past three weeks to bring the contending parties into an attitude for reconciliation.

Both Sides Want Peace.
President Golden of the Textile Union said that the delegates would go to the conference pledged as to any specified line of action, but with the hope of an amicable agreement.

Mr. Drake said both sides seemed disposed to effect a settlement.

FAVORABLE TO THE MORMONS

The Evidence of Prominent Democrats of Idaho.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—Nearly the entire day in the Senate investigation was devoted to a continuation of testimony relating to political conditions in Idaho. Frank Marshall and F. H. Heinemann, prominent Idaho Democrats, testified that a majority of the Democrats of the State opposed a "can unnecessary attack" on the Mormon church, which, they said, was the effect of anti-polygamy plan of the party's State platform.

James H. Brady, chairman of the Republican State committee, told of taking advantage of the Democratic charges in order to get votes for the Republican ticket.

The Church and Politics.

Mr. Martin said he never had known of any instance of Mormon interference in the politics of Idaho. He said he had heard it charged that Mormon influence had defeated former Governor Morrison for re-election, but he believed 80 per cent. of the people did not credit the charge. The witness expressed the opinion that it was augmented by Senator Dabbs that he intended to push the Senate investigation that provoked the Mormon controversy of the last campaign.

"Let Old Fellows Die Off."

Mr. Martin volunteered the statement that personally he favored prosecuting those who continued polygamy celebration, but the majority of Gentiles believed the best way was to "let the old fellows die off."

Mr. Brady said that he had made a careful investigation of the number of polygamists in Idaho and to the most of his information there were only 56. He said that Mormon preachers in which Mormon polygamists campaigned showed a falling off in the Republican vote. This information was given to show that the younger Mormons were opposed to polygamy. "It is all hush," said the witness, "to say that Mormons get everything they want in Idaho—at least if they do, they want very little."

The committee adjourned until tomorrow.

GAMBLERS ARE ON THE RUN.

Moving Out Paraphernalia to Avoid its Confiscation.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Following District Attorney Jerome's raid yesterday on the gambling house of "Honest John" Kelly, Mr. Jerome today secured a statement similar to that made by Kelly, from "Lion" Latham, which resulted in the seizure of a quantity of gambling paraphernalia which Latham admitted had been conducted by him.

Panic Among Gamblers.
The two raids followed by the reports that District Attorney Jerome prepared to carry on unrelenting warfare on gambling, created a general panic among gamblers, especially in the Tenderloin district, and during the day many van loads of gambling furniture were removed from reputed gambling houses and hurried across the ferries to Jersey City for security.

COURT CANNOT SIT

Canonical Error Causes Further Delay in Talbot Case.

NEW CHARGES AGAINST BISHOP

Additional Accusations to be Brought Under the Church Canons Which Are Now in Force.—Statement by Rev. Dr. Bodine.

(By Associated Press.)

READING, PA., Jan. 13.—The ecclesiastical court of inquiry called to consider charges against Bishop Talbot, adjourned sine die this afternoon, the members having decided that the body was uncanonically constituted.

Statement by Dr. Bodine.

A statement given out by Rev. W. B. Bodine, president of the board, says one of the members of the board, Dr. Bix, of New York, did not sit as a deputy in the last general convention and that the list from which the names of the board were drawn was not a list of deputies to the general convention as required by the canons of the church. The statement says that the canonical defect involved an error so material as to render it inexpedient and improper for the deputies present to assume to organize or to act as a board to make preliminary inquiry into the charges.

By many it is said that other charges will be preferred against Bishop Talbot under canons now in force.

RUSSIAN CAVALRY RAIDERS.

Aiming to Harass the Transportation of Nogi's Army.

(By Associated Press.)
TOKIO, Jan. 13.—The bodies of Russian cavalry raiders actively operating southwest of Liao Yang are evidently desirous of harassing Japanese railroad communication and interrupting the transportation of Gen. Nogi's army to reinforce Field Marshal Oyama at Liao Yang.

The Japanese army headquarters, reporting Thursday, says: "Wednesday, at 10 in the morning, a Japanese cavalry detachment encountered four companies of Russian cavalry west of Tangmashan, southwest of Liao Yang and fiercely engaged them. At 2:30 in the afternoon the Russians were repulsed with heavy losses."

Newchwang Attacked.

"On Wednesday afternoon 2,000 Russian cavalry with guns, attacked Newchwang. The Japanese were forced to retire temporarily, but were reinforced, attacked the Russians and are still pursuing them."

"The Russians also attacked Nuchiantun but were repulsed."

The San Turce Disabled.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—The steamer Roswood, (Rm.) from Villa Real, Portugal reports:

January 2, two hundred miles east of Hole-in-the-Wall, picked up American Steamship San Turce, of New York from Porto Rico for New York with less of all propeller blades which had been disabled for six days, took her in tow and carried her to Nassau.

A Suggestion.

"James," said Mr. Rakeley, "I have here you saw me—saluting the maid."

"Why, yes, sir," replied the butler.

"Well, I want you to keep quiet about it. Do you understand?"

"Yes, sir," said the butler, with outstretched hand. "Silence is golden, you know, sir."—Philadelphia Press.

Theatrical

The new musical comedy, "The Jew of Asia," by Frederic Ranken and Ludwig Engländer, that comes to the Academy of Music on next Friday, Jan. 20, is said to have every requisite to command favor with the public. The fun is legitimate, infectious, and unusually laugh-provoking. Paris and Turkey in Asia are the localities represented in this musical comedy, which is in two acts.

Foremost in the fun-making and artistic development of the opera is Miss Vera Michelena, whose popularity is as great as that of many other prima donnas who have enjoyed stellar honors for a much longer period than she has. Her most able aide is Edgar Lecky, probably the best comic stage-entertainer in the country. Another well known performer in "The Jew of Asia" is Harry Short, a clever comedian who created the part of the Sergeant in the original production at Daly's Theater, New York.

Paderewski Coming.

Residents of Newport News, and this section in general, will have an opportunity to hear Paderewski, the greatest of living pianists, who will give a concert at the Academy of Music, Norfolk, on Saturday evening, January 28th, at 8:20 o'clock. This will be the only appearance of the great pianist in Virginia this year, and as he does not expect to return to America for four years, it is likely to be the only chance this part of the State will have to hear him. Paderewski comes to Virginia from the Pacific coast, having reached San Francisco last month after triumphant tours in Australia and New Zealand. His success on the Pacific coast, and further South, where he is now playing, has been the greatest even in his history. Tickets will be placed on sale at the Hume-Minor Company, 104 Granby street, Norfolk, on next Saturday morning, January 21st. Reservations of seats accompanied by checks or money order will be received at any time, and honored in the order in which they arrive. No tickets, however, will be distributed until the 21st.

Case Dismissed.

The case of W. S. Cooke, the negro undertaker who was arrested Thursday for doing business without license, was dismissed by Justice Brown in the police court yesterday. Cooke produced his license, which had been renewed.

Sermon to Masons.

Rev. W. B. Beauchamp will preach a special sermon to Masons at Trinity Methodist church Sunday morning. All Masons are invited to attend.

FRANKLIN LITERARY SOCIETY.

Miss Florence Carr Elected President for the Coming Year.

The Franklin Literary Society of the Phoenix Graded school held its annual election of officers yesterday afternoon.
